5.0 out of 5 stars – Stories for Everyone!

"If you are looking for a treasure chest full of delightful and engaging stories, do yourself a favor and get The KEAK Anthology today! I have never seen such a diverse collection and loved how the author included joint writings with her father. The genres in this story collection include literary fiction, mystery, thriller, historical nonfiction and fiction, romance, science fiction, and realist literature, so there is really something for everyone. While it is hard to choose one favorite story, The Hug was probably the one that stood out the most to me. Highly recommend!"

Steven Max Finkelstein

5.0 out of 5 stars – A Creative Collection of Stories and Excerpts

"Some tales seem disparate, but there are subtle themes tying them together. Such is the case with this short story collection. The Battle of Crete is a harrowing firsthand account of a military battle that dares the reader to turn away. We The People of Earth is a meditation on the vastness of space and humanity's insignificance. Times Past questions the significance of death itself and whether seemingly accidental events have more intention behind them than we might imagine. Flash fiction also puts in an appearance, with The Hug emerging as an emotional standout. Taken together, this grab bag of novel excerpts, short stories, and brief character sketches is evocative, often highly emotional, and unquestionably well-written."
